"Washington An Ideal Summer Resort," Says Mrs.W. P. Borland

Washington Issues Defi to Summer Resorts to Beat Record

What summer resort can show such a record as this of Washington: More than 1,000 visitors come here daily on sight-seeing trips. Between 15,000 and 20,000 persons daily come here either for business or pleasure, or both. Sight-see's spend an average of $3 a day here, or more than $1,000,000

One hundred and ninety-six trains reach Union Station daily. Conventions brise between 50,000 and 60,000 visitosr annually.

Sight-seers spend an average of four days in Washington. Washington's a crage July temperature is 76.8; for August, 74.5. Washington offers the summer visitor all the attractions and more than the so-called "summer resorts" give.

Here are the most beautiful buildings in the country, theaters, band concerts, cool parks, the Potomac river with its heating and bathing facilities, river resorts, mountains close at hand. Washington is not the "Vidamless Eden" that most summer resorts are.
